

I urge you to NOT pass this rule. Presuming you can successfully define what is obscene, you might consider this from a constitutional standpoint. Allow me to quote, in part, from 5th Amendment to the US Constitution:

"No person shall .... be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself ..."

Get out of programming, and go back to allocation of frequencies, as the FCC was originally chartered to do!